Congratulations STEPHEN KENT! You have passed one or more of the Data Processing Manager examinations listed above. Your name will be placed on the corresponding eligible list(s).

Your eligibility expires on 04/17/2013. You may retake the exam 6 months from the date of your exam (as shown above).

To find out your current ranking on this list, visit the eligible list disclosure web page. The State Personnel Board is unable to tell candidates their exact rank on the Data Processing Manager 1 and 2 list. It is important to note that your ranking may change daily. This is due in large part to the Data Processing Manager 1 and 2 exam being administered on a continuous basis with candidates merging on and off the list(s) on a regular basis. Ranking also changes as a result of individuals being hired from the list, being placed inactive on the list, transferring on or off the list, and tenure/timebase and location preferences.

The State Personnel Board is not required to contact all candidates who are reachable for every vacancy; therefore, candidates are encouraged to search for Data Processing Manager 1 vacancies and search for Data Processing Manager 2 vacancies.

You may need your candidate identification number located on this notice, so save this notice.

It is critical that you keep your contact information (address and phone number) and location preferences up to date. You may update your contact information and location preferences here.

Hiring departments must verify that you are reachable on the eligible list and that you meet minimum qualifications for the Data Processing Manager 1 and 2 classification before extending an offer of employment.

Any competitor who wishes to file an appeal must do so within 30 days of the posting of his/her exam results. The appeal must be in writing; must specify facts; and include a copy of this notice. The four grounds for appealing an exam are: Discrimination, Fraud, Erroneous interpretation or application of minimum qualifications, and Significant irregularity. For more information, visit the appeals website. The appeal must be sent to Appeals Division, State Personnel Board, 801 Capitol Mall, Sacramento, CA 95814-4806.
